The George Washington University Department of Anthropology and Latin American & Hemispheric Studies Program present a

Book Launch Party

for

Foxboy

Intimacy and Aesthetics in Andean Stories

by

Catherine J. Allen

Professor of Anthropology and International Affairs

with illustrations by Julia Meyerson

Monday April 2, 2012, 4 p.m.

1957 E Street, Room 505

 Remarks by Joel Kuipers, Professor of Anthropology and International Affairs
Linda Seligmann, Professor of Anthropology and Sociology, George Mason University

 Reading by the author

 Refreshments will be served

“[Foxboy] is a magnificent book that . . . is destined to become a classic in Latin American studies, narrative, aesthetics, Andean studies, and linguistics.”

—Billie Jean Isbell, Emerita Professor and Graduate Professor of Anthropology, Cornell University