A second major in the Columbian College must first be approved by the designated departmental advisor, then by the Elliott School. Students are expected to consult the departmental advisor in all matters related to the second major, including changes, substitutions, withdrawals, and transfer of credit from other institutions. Elliott School students do not need to fulfill Columbian College general curriculum or G-PAC requirements, but must fulfill all stated prerequisites and related requirements. Second majors in the Columbian College are subject to the following policies: (a) grades below C- in upper-division course work may not be applied to the major; (b) at least 12 hours of upper-division course work must be taken in residence at GW; (c) prerequisites, major requirements, and electives in the major may not be graded P/NP.

Elliott School students are ineligible to pursue the following Columbian College programs:
Bachelor of Science degrees; Fine Arts degrees; and majors in Communication, Electronic Media, Journalism, and Political Communication.
